24th October 2020 to 7th February 2021

On the occasion of his 70th birthday, the Museum Ulm is presenting a cabinet exhibition of new graphic works by the artist Paco Knoeller, who comes from Obermarchtal and today is one of the most important contemporary German artists of his generation.

Already during his studies at the Düsseldorf Art Academy under Joseph Beuys, Paco Knoeller recognised the potential of drawing as a "primal instrument for inquiring into the world and at the same time for visualising one's own world".

Paco Knoeller was born in 1950 in Obermarchtal nearby Ulm. He began his studies in 1972 with Joseph Beuys and studied at the Düsseldorf Art Academy until 1978. Also in 1978 the Städtische Galerie Ravensburg organised his first solo exhibition. Since then his works have been regularly shown in leading German museums such as the National Gallery Berlin, the Kunstsammlung Nordrhein-Westfalen, Düsseldorf, the Sprengel Museum Hannover, the Staatliche Kunsthalle Karlsruhe and the Museum Hamburger Bahnhof Berlin. From 2001 to 2013 he held a professorship at the University of the Arts in Bremen. Paco Knoeller lives and works in Berlin.
